Biographical Sketch

William Ross MacDonald was born December 25, 1891 in Toronto, Ontario to George MacDonald and Julia Bulley. His family moved to Brantford, Ontario in 1904 where he attended Brantford Collegiate Institute. During World War I, William Ross MacDonald served with the C.E.F., 2nd Cycle Corps, 4th Battalion. He received further education at the University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall. Upon graduation from Osgood Hall in 1919, he joined the firm of Slaght and Agar in Simcoe, Ontario. In 1920, William Ross MacDonald returned to Brantford and established a new law firm with his brother Norman MacDonald.

In 1935 Ross was elected as a Liberal Member of Parliament and served continuously until 1953. From 1945-1949 he served as Deputy Speaker through an appointment by Prime Minister Mackenzie King. He then became Speaker of the House of Commons from 1949-1953. Appointed to the Senate in 1953 by Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, he was named the Leader of the Senate. Later that year he acted as Canada's official representative at the coronation of Queen Elizabeth. He acted as Senator until his resignation in 1967. As Senator, William Ross MacDonald also held positions as Solicitor-General of Canada (1954-1957) and Leader of the Opposition in the Senate (1957-1964). In 1964 he was appointed as Chancellor to Waterloo Lutheran University. On July 4, 1968 William Ross MacDonald became the 21st Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario and held this position until April 4, 1974. The Ontario School of the Blind was renamed the W. Ross MacDonald School in 1974, and William Ross MacDonald was appointed Officer of the Order of Canada.

In his personal life, William Ross MacDonald married Muriel Whitaker on June 15, 1921 with whom they had two daughters Mrs. John S. (Esther) Marshall and Mrs. Douglas C. (Molly) Haldenby. William Ross MacDonald died May 28, 1976 in Brantford, Ontario and is buried at the Farringdon Burial Grounds in Brantford.
